

The Pacesetters Club: Finance and Resource Management Policy

1.0 Preamble and Philosophy

The Pacesetters Club is a ministry of the Seventh-day Adventist Church. All financial and physical resources entrusted to the club are considered God's property, and we are His stewards. This policy is established to ensure absolute transparency, accountability, and integrity in all financial dealings and resource management, in harmony with the teachings of the Seventh-day Adventist Church and the model provided by the General Conference. Our goal is to manage these resources efficiently to support the club's mission and to honor God.

2.0 Objectives

To Ensure Accountability: To maintain a system of financial controls that prevents misuse of funds and provides clear accountability.

To Promote Transparency: To operate with complete openness, making financial records available for review by the Church Board and club sponsors.

To Practice Biblical Stewardship: To manage all funds and resources in a responsible, efficient, and cost-effective manner.

To Facilitate Planning: To ensure adequate funding for a vibrant club program through budgeting and sound financial planning.

3.0 Financial Oversight and Responsibilities

3.1 The Club Executive Committee

The Club Executive Committee holds ultimate responsibility for the financial health of the club. This includes:

- * Approving the annual budget.
- * Reviewing quarterly financial reports.
- * Approving major expenditures not included in the budget.
- * Ensuring that audit is conducted when required.

3.2 Club Director

The Club Director provides general oversight of all club activities and finances. The Director must approve all expenditures and fundraising activities.

3.3 Treasurer

The Treasurer is responsible for the day-to-day financial management, including:

- * Receiving, recording, and depositing all club funds into the official church club account in a timely manner.
- * Maintaining accurate and up-to-date financial records using a standardized ledger or accounting software.
- * Making payments for approved expenses.
- * Preparing and presenting financial reports for the Executive Committee meeting.
- * Preparing the annual budget in consultation with the Club Director.

3.4 Auditor

An auditor, appointed by the Church Board and independent of the club's financial operations, shall conduct a review of the club's financial records where required.

4.0 Fund Management

4.1 Church Account

All club funds must be held in church account dedicated under the name "The Pacesetters Club SDA." The account shall require two signatures for any withdrawal, typically the Club Director and the Treasurer.

4.2 Handling of Cash

Dual Control: All cash collections (e.g., during fundraising) must be counted and recorded by two appointed staff members at the time of collection.

Timely Deposit: All cash and cheques must be deposited into the church club bank account within one (1) week of receipt.

5.0 Budgeting

5.1 Annual Budget

An annual operating budget must be prepared by the Treasurer and Club Director and presented to the Club Executive Committee for approval before the start of the new club year (e.g., before January). The budget shall include:

- * Projected income (membership fees, church appropriation, fundraising).
- * Projected expenses (uniforms, awards, camping equipment, honors supplies, transportation, training).

5.2 Expenditure Authority

- * Expenditures must be pre-approved and fall within the approved budget categories.

6.0 Fundraising

6.1 Approval

All fundraising activities must be proposed in writing, outlining the purpose, method, and financial goal, and must be approved in advance by the Club Executive Committee and the Church Board.

6.2 Principles

Fundraising activities must:

- * Be in harmony with the health and temperance principles of the Seventh-day Adventist Church.
- * Respect the dignity of the club and its members.
- * Not place undue pressure on members or the church community.
- * Provide clear accountability for all funds raised.

7.0 Resource Management

7.1 Inventory

A master inventory of all major club-owned equipment (e.g., tents, drums, flags, cooking equipment, tools) shall be maintained by the treasurer and updated annually.

7.2 Use and Care

- * Club resources are to be used primarily for official Pathfinder activities.
- * Staff and members are responsible for the proper care and return of equipment issued to them.
- * Any loss or damage to club property must be reported immediately to the Club Director and treasurer.

7.3 Acquisition and Disposal

- * Major acquisitions of equipment must be budgeted and approved by the Club Executive Committee.
- * The disposal of old, broken, or obsolete equipment must be approved by the Committee, ensuring it is done responsibly.

8.0 Reporting

8.1 Financial Reports

A written financial report shall be presented by the Treasurer at every regular Club Executive Committee meeting. A summarized report shall be presented to the church congregation at least annually.

8.2 Annual Audit

An independent financial audit of the club's records shall be conducted within three (3) months of the end of the fiscal year. The report shall be presented to the Club Executive Committee and the Church Board.

9.0 Policy Review

This policy shall be reviewed every two (2) years by the Club Executive Committee to ensure its continued relevance and effectiveness.

We, the undersigned, have read, understood, and agree to abide by the principles and procedures outlined in this Finance and Resource Management Policy.

Club Director

Printed Name: _____

Signature: _____

Date: _____

Treasurer

Printed Name: _____

Signature: _____

Date: _____

Church Board Chairman

Printed Name: _____

Signature: _____

Date: _____