

The Pacesetters Club: Uniform and Identity Policy

1.0 Preamble and Philosophy

The uniform of The Pacesetters Club is more than just clothing; it is a symbol of our identity, mission, and unity. It represents our commitment to the high ideals of the Seventh-day Adventist Church and the Pathfinder Club's objectives of spiritual, mental, and physical development. Wearing the uniform with pride and dignity reflects our dedication to Christ, our respect for the Club, and our fellowship with one another. This policy is established in accordance with the General Conference of Seventh-day Adventists Pathfinder Club Staff Manual and the cultural context of the East African Division, specifically the East Kenya Union Conference.

2.0 Objectives

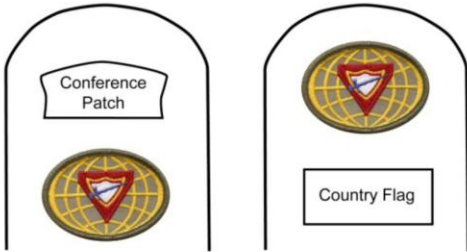

- To Foster Unity: To create a visible bond of fellowship and equality among all Pacesetters.
- To Promote Identity: To clearly identify members as part of a Christ-centered, disciplined, and service-oriented organization.
- To Instill Discipline: To teach the values of neatness, order, and self-respect.
- To Ensure Standards: To maintain a consistent and respectable appearance that honors God and the Church.

3.0 The Official Uniform

The official uniform is to be worn at all communicated Club meetings, investiture services, Pathfinder-related events, public appearances, and during field trips unless otherwise specified by the Club Director.

Pathfinder Insignia
Left Sleeve Options

3.1 Class A Uniform (Full Dress Uniform)

The Class A uniform is the formal and complete uniform, required for Sabbaths, Investiture, Parades, and other special ceremonies.

- Shirt: A clear white, classic-style shirt with epaulettes. The shirt must be extra clean, neatly ironed, and tucked in at all times. They will be short sleeved for 10-15 year olds.

Trousers/ skirts

Male Pacesetters: A designated dark green shade , straight-cut, formal trousers. No jeans, cargo pants, or tight-fitting styles.

Female Pacesetters: The designated green, straight-cut , A-line skirt. The skirt's length must be modest, falling at least to the knee.

Neckerchief:

The official club neckerchief, color and design will be as approved by the Club.

It shall be worn neatly under the collar, secured with a official woggle (slide). The woggle will be consistent for all members or denote specific ranks/units.

Headgear:

Male Pacesetters: A maroon beret, worn correctly with the badge positioned over the left eye.

Female Pacesetters: A maroon beret, worn in the same manner, with hair neatly tucked away from the face.

Socks: Plain white with Pathfinder emblem.

Shoes: Plain black, polished, closed-toe shoes. Sports shoes, sandals, or high-heeled shoes are not permitted.

Belt: Our boys will adorn only standardized Pathfinder belts.

3.2 Class B Uniform (Activity Uniform)

The Class B uniform is for regular meetings, work projects, and activities where a full-dress uniform is not required.

T-Shirt: An official white/ yellow designated club activity T-shirt with the club logo. The shirt must be clean and tucked in.

Bottoms: The same dark green trousers (for males) or skirt (for females) as the Class A uniform.

Footwear: Sturdy, closed-toe shoes suitable for activities (e.g., black sneakers). Sandals are not permitted.

Headgear: The official beret is still required unless the activity makes it unsafe (as determined by the staff).

4.0 Insignia and Placement

All insignia must be securely and neatly attached in the correct positions.

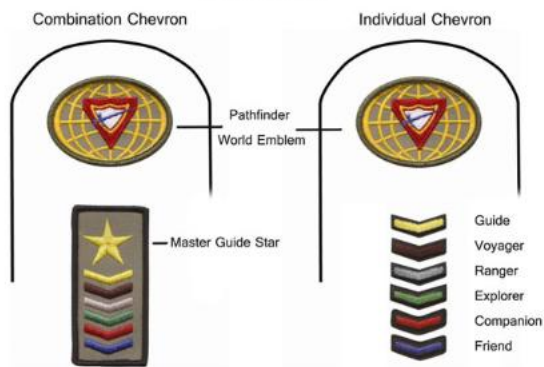

Club Shoulder Patch: Worn on the left shoulder, centered between the shoulder seam and the top of the sleeve.

Pathfinder World Crest: Worn on the right shoulder, centered.

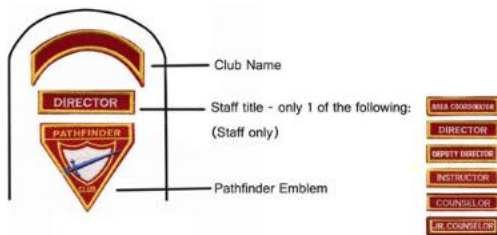

Name Tag: will be worn on the right side of the shirt, above the pocket .

Staff will be a model on placement of patches/ insignias

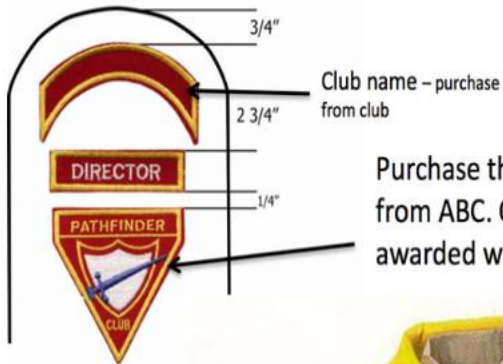

Left Sleeve

Right Sleeve

Pathfinder Insignia Right Sleeve

Placement of patches

Purchase these patches from ABC. Other patches awarded when earned.

Pathfinder Insignia Left Sleeve

Honors/Awards: Master Guide and other honors patches will be worn on the right sleeve according to Pathfinder tradition.

Rank Insignia: Worn on the left sleeve, as per the Pathfinder curriculum progression (Friend, Companion, Explorer, etc.).

Office/Leadership Cords & Insignia: Worn as designated for Club Captain, Treasurer, Secretary, etc., typically on the right shoulder.

5.0 Grooming and Personal Appearance*

Our appearance should be a testimony to the principles we uphold.

Hair: Should be clean, neat, and of a natural color plus look. For males, hair should be kept above the collar and ears. Extreme or faddish styles are not permitted for any member.

Jewelry & Adornment: In harmony with the worldwide Seventh-day Adventist Church's position and emphasis on modesty, the wearing of jewelry (including rings, bracelets, necklaces, and earrings for both genders) is not permitted while in uniform. A simple, functional wristwatch is acceptable.

Make-up: If worn, should be minimal, natural looking and modest.

Fingernails: Should be clean and trimmed to a reasonable length.

6.0 Uniform Care and Maintenance

The uniform must be kept clean, mended, and pressed.

Shoes must be polished and in good repair.

Members are responsible for ensuring their uniform is complete and in good condition for every meeting.

7.0 Wearing the Uniform with Civilian Clothing

The uniform is not to be mixed with civilian clothing. Either the full uniform (as specified for the occasion) is worn, or civilian attire is worn. The beret is not to be worn with civilian clothes.

8.0 Acquisition of Uniform

The Club leadership will coordinate the bulk purchase of uniform components to ensure consistency in color and quality. Parents/guardians will be informed of the official supplier and pricing.

9.0 Non-Compliance

Members who arrive at a Club function without the correct uniform will:

1. Be counseled by a staff member.

2. May not be permitted to participate in certain activities or represent the club publicly.
3. For repeated offenses, the Club Director will contact the parent/guardian.

10.0 Amendments

This policy may be reviewed and amended by the Club's Executive Committee in consultation with the local Church Board and in alignment with any updates from the East Kenya Union Conference or the General Conference.

Acknowledgement of Understanding

We have read, understood, and agree to abide by the Uniform and Identity Policy of The Pacesetters Club.

Pacesetter's Name: _____

Pacesetter's Signature: _____ Date: _____

Parent/Guardian's Signature: _____ Date: _____